Scholarship: CFMA's goal is to award one or two scholarships totaling TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000.00) to qualified candidates as reimbursement for actual Tuition Costs incurred from the Fall of 2023 through the Spring of 2024, and which are not otherwise paid by any other source including the candidate's employer or other scholarship program. CFMA reserves the right to modify the award amount and the number of recipients selected. Applicants may be required to provide an accounting of the eligible un-reimbursed Tuition Costs for which the Scholarship is requested.

The successful candidate(s) will be invited to attend dinner with a guest and receive his/her award at CFMA's Annual Golf Outing to be held on July 31, 2023 at Waynesborough Country Club In Paoli.

CFMA utilizes a voucher system, meaning that applicants who receive an award will be given a voucher to redeem the awarded funds within the allowed time. All payments will be issued in the name of the successful applicants and their institution. The vouchers will be valid for seven (7) months from the date of the award.

Only Applicants who satisfy ALL of the Below Requirements will be Eligible for a Scholarship:

1. Applicant must reside and/or work in the geographic area serviced by the CFMA Philadelphia Chapter.
2. Applicant must have successfully completed 12 college or university credit hours.
3. Applicant must be (1) enrolled in a program leading to a degree from a college or university that demonstrates a commitment to working in the construction industry in an active management role that requires the use of financial information to be successful or (2) be enrolled in a degree program at a college or university and possess actual industry experience working in the construction industry in an active management role that requires the use of financial information to be successful.
4. Applicants may not be members of CFMA, with the exception of student members. Family members are eligible.
